A senior with at least 3.0 overall grade point average, a 3.0 grade point average in the area of concentration, and within 12 credit hours of graduation may petition to enroll for a maximum of eight credit hours of graduate credit. These credits may be applied toward the undergraduate degree, at the department's discretion, or toward a master's degree from Northern, but not both.

Credit to be applied toward a master's degree at Northern will be accepted and recorded as graduate credit only after admission to the Graduate College and after the successful completion of an additional 12 credit hours of graduate study. In general, these credits will not be accepted in transfer by another institution. Students will be charged Graduate tuition for all courses taken for graduate credit and for 500-level course taken for undergraduate credit.
