

THE DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARD

NORTHERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

is presented to

JERRY J. HERMAN

In recognition of his outstanding career as a teacher and administrator in elementary, secondary and collegiate education.

He has served youth as an elementary and junior high school teacher, an elementary principal and educational coordinator, and a coordinator of curriculum and research.

He has provided administrative leadership as an Assistant Superintendent for Instruction at the Lakeview Public Schools, St. Clair Shores, Michigan; Superintendent of Schools, Godwin Heights Public Schools, Wyoming, Michigan; Superintendent of Schools, Lewiston-Porter Central Schools, Youngstown, New York; and as Superintendent, West Bloomfield School District, Orchard Lake, Michigan, where his programs and policies ranging from the ombudsman to originating a sensitized recruitment program have been implemented.

He has served higher education as Audio-Visual Coordinator for the School of Education at the University of Michigan and has taught courses on curriculum, administration and plant planning at the University of Michigan and Northern Michigan University.

His contributions to education are many. He has published in excess of 21 articles on education, authored three books, and has served in numerous leadership roles on local, regional, state, and national levels as a planner, coordinator, advisor and researcher.

A highly motivated and dedicated educator, he has brought honor and dignity to his Alma Mater through his outstanding leadership and performance. A loyal Alumnus of Northern Michigan University, he has been an active participant in Alumni programs and activities.

Presented this ninth day of August, 1974, at Marquette, Michigan
