Electronics Technician

Performs a variety electronic assembly and repair operations. Essential Duties and Responsibilities include the following, other duties may be assigned.

- Performs direct work, demonstrating the ability to perform any of the various operations within the group
- Assist in modifying BOMs, work instructions, and ISO documents as necessary
- Compiles detailed production and repair paperwork, including quantities produced, scrapped, in-process, etc.
- Assists in maintaining Neogen RA system entries for department
- Assist in counting inventory
- Performs on-bench diagnosis, repair, and production assembly.
- Troubleshoot and repair defective microprocessor based PCBs to component level
- Provides Customer Support and depot repair for all of Neogen's electronic products
- Ensures quality product is built and shipped

Education and/or Experience: Bachelor of Science degree in Electronics required. Minimum of two years' experience in electronic assembly, processes, equipment and troubleshooting required. Small scale mechanical aptitude required, will be working with small parts, sometimes under a magnifier.