

Upper Peninsula Power Company

UPPCO seeks an Engineer Intern to join their Generation Maintenance team in Ishpeming, Michigan.

This position will assist UPPCO's Generation Department with the safe, reliable, and efficient operation of the generation facilities by applying engineering principles and procedures to improve operations and maintenance practices.

RESPONSIBILITIES.

- Promote safety awareness, accident prevention, and employee involvement with regards to a safe work environment.
- Assist team in completing preventative maintenance, equipment repairs, and special projects to achieve goals, and maximize equipment output and efficiency.
- Assist with the development and continuous improvement to achieve a best-in-class computerized maintenance management system (CMMS).
- Assist with defining, planning, executing, and delivery of projects based on set timelines, business requirements, and available resources.
- Oversee and supervise the project management process including planning, execution, daily operations, project turnover, and closeout of assigned projects.

COMPENSATION/BENEFITS. Position offers a competitive wage, based on knowledge and experience.

SCHEDULE. This internship runs May 1 - August 31, 2022 and will be coordinated with your college school schedule, and generally works Monday-Friday from 7:30am-3:30pm.

QUALIFICATIONS.

- High school diploma or equivalent required.
- Must be currently enrolled in a 4-year Engineering or Technology program.
- Valid driver's license and ability to travel as needed.
- Ability to work independently as well as in a team environment.
- Excellent time management, organization, and communication skills.
- Basic understanding of manufacturing equipment is a plus.

SOUND LIKE YOU? Take the next step and apply online at uppc.hirescore.com