Northern Michigan University formally affirms its commitment to prohibit unlawful discrimination against individuals with disabilities in any aspect of University life including, but not limited to, physical plant access, employment, services, and the academic process. To this end, Northern Michigan University declares its intention to adhere to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and all other applicable federal and state disability law.

The University will offer reasonable accommodations as defined by law and will establish and make known the procedures for obtaining those accommodations. Furthermore, the University will offer consultation, assistance and problem resolution to the University community through the office of the ADA Coordinator and will provide information regarding other applicable University processes.

David S. Haynes, President
Northern Michigan University