Experience the rich history and culture of Ireland through the lens of an internship in Dublin – an extraordinary opportunity to integrate into Irish life, benefit by fine-tuning your communication skills, and develop practical professional skills. Students are placed with well-known companies in many industry sectors, as well as with smaller, innovative organizations and non-profits. You’ll live in student residences and be provided with many social and cultural opportunities to explore Dublin.

Contact the International Programs office for more information and to begin your application.

2013 Program Dates: July 1-August 17

Academics: Students are required to enroll in academic credit as determined by individual academic departments – placements are available in almost any major. From politics to publishing, the arts to community health practice – intellectually engaging internships are based on your field of interest, goals and skills. Here a just a few of the sectors available in Dublin:

- Fine Arts, Theater, Culture
- Business, Finance, Economics
- International Studies, International Relations, Political Science
- Health Services, Social Issues
- Marketing, Public Relations, Advertising
- Recreation, Leisure, Hospitality

Generally, you can expect to earn from 2 to 6 credit hours of internships or directed study. You may also be required to complete various activities such as:

- Weekly reflective journal
- Internship portfolio
- Research paper
- Presentation to the NMU community following completion of the Dublin experience
- Other activities as determined by your department guidelines

Program Costs: A deposit of $400 is due upon acceptance to the program. The following fees will be applied to your NMU student account (summer session):

- NMU International Program Fee: $125
- Dublin program fee: $4300-$4500 based on total enrollment (minimum of 5 required)
- NMU summer tuition rate per credit hour approved for the internship, included in internship fee
- Mandatory international health care insurance, arranged by NMU-contracted provider, approximately $70.

What’s included:

- Telephone placement meeting and pre-departure orientation materials
- 1-week orientation session in Dublin plus...
- 6-week placement in professional practical internship in Dublin
- 7 weeks of housing in designated student housing
- Full social program and activities
- Airport pick-up for group designated arrival time

What’s not included:

International airfare, estimated at $800 to $1200; meals – estimated at $800; personal spending, est. at $1000; individual travel plans.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: 1 March 2013. Requires $400 deposit.

For more information and application materials, contact:

Susan Morgan, Coordinator-Education Abroad, smorgan@nmu.edu