You indicated on your 2011-2012 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) that you have special circumstances regarding your family situation and therefore, you did not provide parental information. Under the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA), effective August 14, 2008, dependent students may be eligible to receive only Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans if the parent(s) has ended financial support and refuses to file the FAFSA.

If you did not provide parental information on the FAFSA due to an abusive family environment, neglect, or abandonment by the parents, please contact the Financial Aid Office to speak to a counselor in regards to a potential dependency override.

If your parents are unwilling to complete the parent section below, please provide third party (teacher, counselor, clergy member, court, etc) documentation describing the student relationship with the parent.

Parent: By signing this form, I certify all of the statements below are true.

- I do not provide financial support to my son or daughter named above. This includes not only payment of educational costs, but also cash and non-cash support to the student such as room and board, renter's, hospitalization, or car insurance.
- I have stopped providing financial support to my son/daughter.
- I will not provide financial support in the future.
- I did not claim my son/daughter as an exemption on my 2010 federal income tax return, and will not claim him/her for 2011.
- My son/daughter no longer resides in my household.
- I refuse to complete the parental section of the FAFSA.
- I understand I will not be eligible to apply for a Parent PLUS loan on the student's behalf.

I have not provided any support for my child since _____
