NATIVE AMERICAN STUDIES MINOR

Total Credits for Minor: 24

Required Courses:
- NAS 204: The Native American Experience (4 credits) Division II *
- NAS 488: Native American Service Learning Project (1-4 credits)

Required Electives: 16-19 credits
All students must take at least four credits from each category unless an alternative plan is pre-approved by the director of the Center for Native American Studies.

Native American Content Courses in English, and Oral Traditions:
- NAS 280: Storytelling by Native American Women (4 credits)
- NAS 330: Native Cultures and the Dynamics of Religious Experience (4 credits)
- EN 311Z: World Literature in English (4 credits) Division II *
- EN 314: Traditional Oral Literatures: Selected Native American Cultures (4 credits) Division II *
- EN 316: Native American Novels and Poetry (4 credits) Division II *
- EN 317: Native American Drama, Non-fiction, and Short Stories (4 credits) Division II *
- EN 430: Major Authors (3-4 credits)

Native American Content Courses in Anthropology, History, and Sociology:
- AN 320: Native Peoples of North America (4 credits) Division IV
- AN 330: Native Peoples of the Great Lakes Region (4 credits)
- HS 233: Native American History (4 credits) Division IV *
- HS 234: Indigenous Peoples of Latin America (4 credits) Division II
- HS 295: Special Topics in History (1-4 credits)
- SO 295: Special Sociological Topics (1-4 credits)

Native American Content Courses in Anishinaabe Language, Art and Design, and Music:
- NAS 101: Anishinaabe Language, Culture and Community I (4 credits) Division V
- NAS 102: Anishinaabe Language, Culture and Community II (4 credits) Division V
- AD 200: Native American Art and Architecture (4 credits) Division VI *
- AD 295: Special Topics in Art and Design (1-4 credits)
- MU 325: World Music (4 credits) Division VI *

Native American Content Courses in Education, and Political Science:
- NAS 287: The Legal and Political History of Michigan Indian Education (2 credits)
- NAS 288: Politics of Indian Gaming (4 credits) Division IV
- NAS 310: Tribal Law and Government (4 credits) Division IV
- NAS 340: Kinomaage – The Earth Shows Us the Way (4 credits)
- NAS 342: Indigenous Environmental Movements (4 credits)
- NAS 484: Native American Inclusion in the Classroom (2 credits)
- NAS 485: American Indian Education (3 credits)
- PS 295: Special Problems in Political Science (1-4 credits)

NOTES:
- EN 311Z, EN 430, HS 295, SO 295, AD 295, MU 325, and PS 295 are courses of variable content. Credit only applies to the minor when these courses deal with Native American subject matter. NAS 295 Special Topics in Native American Studies may include course content that is not presently included in these categories. NAS 298 Directed Study in Native American Studies may also be taken for 1-4 credits with approval.

*Also meets World Cultures requirement.
*Also meets Diversity Edge of Superior Edge.

Last updated: 6/5/2008