BYLAWS OF THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

AT NORTHERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

Revised 10/99; 12/06

FOREWORD

The intercollegiate athletic program is an integral part of the educational program at Northern Michigan University, and the student-athlete is an integral part of the student body. As such, the intercollegiate athletic program is subject to University direction and control.

Definitions:

1. Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR): FAR’s provide oversight and advice in the administration of an institutional athletics program. The working relationship between the chief executive officer and the FAR is a critically important determinant of the effectiveness of the FAR in contributing to local control of the intercollegiate athletics program (See FAR Handbook). (NCAA, 2004, p. 12) The FAR will serve as the chair of the NMU Athletic Council and work in accordance with the established FAR Job Description as approved by the NMU President.

Business affecting the NMU Athletic Council will operate under proper parliamentary procedure according to Roberts Rules of Order. (INSERT HYPERLINK HERE)

I. FUNCTIONS OF THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Athletic Council is advisory to the President of the University on matters pertaining to intercollegiate athletics. Final authority on changes of policy governing the operation of the intercollegiate athletic program rests with the President. The responsibilities of the Council are:

1. To insure that the intercollegiate athletic program is conducted in conformance with the philosophy, rules and regulations of Northern Michigan University and the rules and regulations of intercollegiate athletic conferences and organizations in which the University holds memberships. (See NMU Student Code, NMU Athletic Code, NCAA Division I/II Manuals). INSERT HYPERLINKS TO THESE

2. To establish institutional eligibility rules with presidential approval and insure that student-athletes conform with these rules and those established by national intercollegiate athletic organizations and conferences in which the University holds membership.

3. To approve all intercollegiate athletic schedules, taking into consideration the academic calendar of the University.

4. To review policies relating to student-athlete scholarships.
5. To approve recommendation for athletic awards and special athletic events. (See Guidelines for Athletic Awards and Special Athletic Events)

6. To make recommendations regarding invitations to participate in postseason games or meets.

7. To appoint or elect members to Council standing committees each April and establish ad hoc committees as the need arises.

8. To advise on special problems related to the operation of the intercollegiate athletic program.

9. To review and provide suggestions for Athletic Council annual report prior to submission of the committees annual report to the President. FAR will draft initial report.
   FAR will submit annual committee report to the President prior to the end of each fiscal year.

10. To review the budget for intercollegiate athletics in order to ensure that the budget support the program in conformance with Athletic Program Policy, and to make recommendations regarding the budget to the president.

11. To review the recruitment and selection procedures for Athletic Department personnel to ensure the department is working in alignment with university established Human Resources policies and procedures

   The Athletic Council will not be responsible for the evaluation of personnel in the Intercollegiate Athletic Program.

12. To assist the FAR in conducting exit interviews of graduating or non-returning student-athletes.

13. Provide support to the university athletic department through attendance at scheduled athletic contests and events as schedules permit.

14. To participate on search committees for athletic department personnel.

II. MEMBERSHIP

The Council shall consist of six ex officio members and twelve members appointed by the president. Ex officio members are non-voting members. The ex officio members are:

1. the Director of Athletics
2. the NCAA Compliance Officer
3. the Registrar or designee
4. the Senior Woman Administrator
5. Director of Financial Aid or designee

The members appointed by the President and length of each appointment are:
