This Week's Storylines

NMU RETURNS TO THE POSTSEASON

The Northern Michigan women's basketball team returns to the GLIAC Tournament this week for the first time in two years. The Wildcats travel to No. 5 Ashland on Feb. 29 for a quarterfinal matchup.

SERIES HISTORY

NMU is 16-7 all-time versus Ashland with the series dating back to the 1995-96 season. The Eagles defeated the 'Cats 85-55 back on Feb. 18 in Ashland. NMU has won three of the last four in the series.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

The Eagles enter the contest on a 25-game win streak since starting the season 0-1. Ashland finished its conference schedule a perfect 19-0 on its way to capturing the south division and the regular season GLIAC Championship.

THE COACH

The 2011-12 season marks the seventh year under head coach Troy Mattson. He has guided the 'Cats to a 86-104 mark, including a trip to the NCAA Tournament during the 2009-2010 season and a 12-14 mark in 2010-2011.

NMU IN THE GLIAC TOURNAMENT

NMU returns to the GLIAC Tournament after a one year absence. The 'Cats are 22-9 all-time in the tournament and went 2-1 in 2010, falling to rival Michigan Tech 73-69 in the championship game.

'CATS ON THE PROWL

The 'Cats have won three of their last four games, including two straight at home last week to conclude the regular season. The streak allowed NMU to secure third place in the north division and a spot in the conference tournament. Senior guard Chelsea Lyons netted a career-high 34 points in the win against Northwood, averaging 26 points per game last week.
