Financial wellness involves being comfortable with your financial situation. Tips for optimal financial wellness are:

- Understanding the limits of your income and living within your means
- Knowing how to balance a checkbook and interpret your bank statements

Explore the Financial Dimension by...

- Balancing your checkbook on a regular basis
- Not using your credit card for a while
- Investing
- Meeting with a financial advisor
- Building a savings account