

Academic Suspension or Dismissal Appeal Form

To appeal your academic suspension or dismissal from Northern Michigan University, you must complete this form and return it to the Academic & Career Advisement Center. Your appeal form and all official documentation must be submitted at least five business days prior to the first day of the semester you would like to return in order for the Admissions and Academic Policies Committee (AAPC) to hear your appeal and reach a decision in a timely manner.

Name NMU IN

Phone E-mail

Were you suspended or dismissed?

suspended

dismissed

What semester were you suspended or dismissed?

Which semester would you like to return to NMU?

What academic program do you plan to pursue upon your return to NMU?

Describe the circumstance that was out of your personal control and contributed to your academic difficulties at NMU. Describe how you have eliminated or corrected the situation.

Official documentation verifying your circumstance is required for your appeal to be heard and must be submitted. If your official documentation is being sent directly from the source, it can be emailed to acac@nmu.edu or faxed to 906.227.1751.

Acknowledgement of Official Documentation

I understand that the absence of appropriate official documentation will void my appeal and the academic suspension or dismissal will be upheld.

Describe what you have been doing since your suspension or dismissal from NMU.

Although not considered official documentation, letters of support may be included in your appeal. If your letter of support is being sent directly from the source, it can be emailed to acac@nmu.edu or faxed to 906.227.1751.

Return this completed appeal form and additional documents to Academic & Career Advisement Center in person at 3302 Hedgcock (Monday-Friday 8am-5pm E.S.T.), by mail to 1401 Presque Isle Avenue, Marquette, MI 49855, by email to acac@nmu.edu or by fax to 906.227.1751 at least five business days prior to the first day of the semester you would like to return.