The purpose of this form is to help us prepare a generalist field placement in your first year of the MSW program that adds to, rather than repeats, the experience obtained in your BSW placement. Please include all requested documentation. You will be contacted by the field coordinator in order to further evaluate and plan for your placement following submission of the Field Application and supplemental materials.

Portfolio Checklist

- A summary of BSW field placement, including type of agency, role in agency, population served, evidence-based practices used, and other relevant information. Please include the 9 Core Competencies of Social Work Practice and for each competency, specify if this was an area of strength in your placement or an area where further growth or exposure was needed.

- Syllabus for the Field Seminar (if BSW obtained from a university other than NMU)

- A copy of the learning agreement or contract

- Field instructor evaluations from all completed semesters

- Any other materials or evidence describing field placement and achievements, including research developed, group curriculums, projects or assignments created for or regarding field placement, evidence of training in agency practices or evidence-based practices, etc.
