SONDEREGGER SYMPOSIUM XVIII
Celebrating the History, Life, and Culture of the Upper Peninsula
September 7, 2018
Northern Michigan University
Whitman Commons

8:30–8:55 Continental Breakfast
9:00–9:15 Welcome and Opening Address. Robert Winn, Ph.D. Dean of Arts and Sciences, Northern Michigan University
10:15–10:30 Morning Coffee Break
10:30- 11:00 “Sailing into Legend – the Most Baffling Shipwreck(s) in the Great Lakes!” Fred Stonehouse, President, Marquette Maritime Museum
11:00- 11:30 “In the Land of Hiawatha: Conservation and Literary Sociabiliy in Northern Michigan.” Camden Burd, Ph.D. candidate, University of Rochester, New York. Grace Magnaghi Visiting Research Grant recipient
11:30–12:00 “Overview of World War One in the Lake Superior Basin.” Russ Magnaghi, Ph.D. Professor Emeritus, Northern Michigan University
12:00–1:00 Lunch Whitman Commons
1:00–1:30 “The Roosevelt Libel Trail.” James McCommons, English Professor, Northern Michigan University. Grace Magnaghi Visiting Research Grant recipient
1:30–2:00 “Slovenes in the UP.” James Seelye, Ph.D. Department of History, Kent State University
2:00–2:30 “Female Agitators: The Women of the 1913–1914 Keweenaw Copper Strike.” Allie Penn, MLS candidate, Wayne State University
2:30–2:45 Afternoon Coffee Break
2:45–3:15 “When Chicago Attacked the Piano: NMU Myth or Reality?” Dan Truckey, Director, Beaumier Upper Peninsula Heritage Center
3:45–3:50 Closing Remarks